Entering the country

Arriving from within Latin America you do not need a visa to enter Brazil. You will need to complete an entrance card, which you must present at immigration. Do not choose 'Tourism' as the reason for your visit. State that you are on Business in Brazil (but not work, otherwise they may ask to see a work permit). Provide the address of your hotel on this form.

Voltage

Usually 127 V (60 Hz) but can be 220 V. Bring an adaptor:

Currency

US$ 1 = R$ 3.17 (Reais) on January 25th
Changing money can be difficult and expensive. However, credit cards are widely accepted and ATMs are generally available.

Taxi

The taxi stand Guarucops is reliable and recommended. Their rates are fixed. The fare to hotels near the school should be no more than R$140.

The Airport shuttle bus is comfortable and air-conditioned. It runs about once an hour, and serves the bus station and a number of other central locations. A single fare costs roughly R$50 and can be bought from the kiosk just outside the main doors of terminal 2. Further information can be found here:
